Ousted Official Charges Irregularities in County

Charges alleging irregularities in the operations of the Contra Costa Housing Authority were made to the Contra Costa Grand Jury Friday by Fred Anthon, ex chairman of the Concord Planning Commission.

Anthon, who served as maintainace supervisor of the authority, was recently ousted from his $680 a month job in reported budget cut backs by the authority.

ANTHON CHARGES that he was fired by the commission after he told a federal investigator of certain activities in which members of the commission had been involved.

In a prepared statement to The Sun Anthon wrote:

"Circumstances cause me to feel that my dismissal was not caused by budget reasons, for in an Authority such as this where thousands of dollars each year are spent by certain Authority Commissioners and employees, such things as economy are only mentioned at such times as it most benefits the Executive power of the Authority.

"IN VIEW OF the above, and because of certain public remarks made by the Executive Director, I am led to believe my dismissal was brought about by personal reasons, mainly because this board has been falsely advised that I had provided certain information to a Federal Investigator, who has been investigating irregularities in the operation of the Contra Costa Housing Authority.

"For the record, I would like to state that I only truthfully answered to the best of my knowledge the following questions:

"1. I was questioned by a Mr. Sullivan, a Federal Investigator, if I had any knowledge of the removal of a two-wheel motor scooter (property of the Federal Government) from the Riverbank Housing Authority by, Mr. Howard.

"I ANSWERED yes to this question, as I had been requested by Mr. Howard, to accompany him in my pick-up truck to Riverbank to pick up this motor scooter, which was subsequently delivered to Mr. Howard's residence in Pleasant Hill.

"2. I was further questioned about a certain shipment of some one and one-half inch (1½") and three-quarter inch (¾") galvanized pipe which was delivered near Mr. Howard's new property in Alhambra Valley.

"I informed the Investigator that Mr. Howard requested I assist him in moving the pipe up a steep hill to his property, which I did. However bad roads prevented us from hauling approximately two-thousand (2000') feet of pipe to the top of the hill on the owners property. The ultimate desposition, or destination of the remaining approximately two-thousand (2000') feet of pipe is not within my knowledge.

"3. AMONG OTHER THINGS, I was questioned about the Employees Annual Parties, which were held at Commissioner Gill's Marsh Creek Springs, at Authority expense. Also about certain transactions involving an Automobile owned by Commissioner Weise, which was purchased by the Authority.

"With reference to the Annual Parties I could only state that my wife and I attended these parties, along with approximately eighty other Housing Authority Employees, but as I was on the east coast at the time of the auto transaction I could not intelligently answer that question.

"These and many other questions were asked of me by the Federal Investigator and many incoming telephone calls relative to the above, left me in no doubt, that these same questions were being asked of many former employees, who have been dismissed during the past two and one-half (2½) years.

"Therefore; because of the Investigators Official capacity with the Federal Government I felt it was most important that all questions be truthfully and accurately answered.

"IN VIEW of the Commissioners action and the circumstances surrounding my dismissal I have this date transmitted to the Grand Jury of the County of Contra Costa, a copy of this statement and have advised the Grand Jury that the contents of this communication can be substantiated by the above named, Mr. Sullivan.

"This communication is not to be considered as an appeal for re-instatement by the undersigned, since I could not, in good conscience, continue such employment under the existing circumstances," Anthon concluded.

E. I. Spiegl Named General Chairman On Incorporation

Appointment of Ernest I. Spiegl as general chairman of the incorporation committee of the Orinda Association was announced at the civic affairs committee meeting Monday night by Kirk Miles, chairman of the community contacts committee of the Orinda Association.

Spiegl was appointed to his position by W. E. Estes, president of the Orinda Association.

He will be responsible for coordination of all phases of study on the proposed incorporation of Orinda.

Miles also reported to the civic affairs committee on the meeting on incorporation scheduled for May 6 in the auditorium of Orinda School at 8 p.m.

Robeson Smith, Mrs. Doris Fernsten and Emile Pierre raised the point that an effort should be made to secure speakers to offer arguments against incorporation at the May 6 meeting, in order that the fullest information on incorporation be made available to the people of Orinda.

Miles accepted Pierre and Mrs. Fernsten as members of his committee to help secure speakers for and against incorporation.

In addition, Miles presented to the civic affairs meeting a breakdown of the organization of the committee on incorporation.

Under Spiegl's general chairmanship are the community contact committee, headed by Miles; the petitions committee, headed by Herbert A. Waterman; and a research committee chairmaned by Fred Rust.

Several other committees are in the process of formation, according to Miles.

School Is Evacuated In CD Drill

Children of the Murwood School, Walnut Creek, evacuated their classrooms last Friday in an orderly fashion, when the first Civil Defense alert practice drill in the Walnut Creek School District was held.

On hand were many county and local Civil Defense and administrative officers.

William Flynn, vice principal of Murwood and the District's CD chairman, said that the drill was "very satisfactory," and helped prepare for more such drills in the district later on.

Nearly 500 children were led from their classes to the school grounds. From there they were conducted to their neighborhoods, where block mothers were waiting.

More than a hundred volunteer adults, in addition to the teachers, participated in the drill.

It is anticipated that similar drills will be conducted in the other elementary school of the Walnut Creek School District before summer vacation.

Breed Tells Of Possible Parking Plan

Possibility of establishment of a parking area for about 300 cars, not far from the Greyhound bus stop for westbound Orinda commuters, was discussed Monday night by Horace Breed, chairman of the Orinda Parking Authority, in a talk to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee at Orinda School auditorium.

The land was described by Breed as a parcel about 150 feet wide and 525 feet long, owned by East Bay Municipal Utility District, with Pacific Gas and Electric Company having right-of-way for its overhead power lines.

The land is just west of where the projected Orinda Village By-Pass would come into the Orinda Interchange area.

BREED SAID that talks are going on with EBMUD regarding the possibility.

"There are two ways of financing such a project," Breed said. "One would be by a bond issue, which the parking district has the right to arrange.

"THE OTHER would be to get money contributed by some other fashion.

"It's expected that business men would be benefitted by having commuter cars parked somewhere away from their establishments, thus leaving space for customers' cars.

"It's estimated that about $17,000 in expense could be distributed in such a way that it wouldn't be too great a burden upon any one of the businesses in the area."

Breed also observed that it appeared to be a "reasonable idea" for "commuters to pay some reasonable amount for maintenance, into the fund."

Fire Commission To Meet Monday

The Board of Fire Commissioners of the Orinda County Fire Protection District has scheduled a special meeting for Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at Station No. 1.

The meeting will be concerned with preliminary budget discussion for the ensuing fiscal year.

Physicians Retain Architect; Choice Of Site is Next

Los Angeles architect Reiner Neilsen was retained last Sunday to consult with an association of physicians in the central county towards designing a new private hospital to be built in this area.

At the meeting held at the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Neilsen told the group of more than 60 doctors that some $800,000 would be involved in purchase of the land, construction of the building and installation of facilities.

Neilsen has been associated with the designing of some 30 private hospitals in Southern California.

The doctors will next choose a site and move towards acquiring it. After that, and financing arrangements are complete, the actual construction may take less than a year.

Neilsen will in the meantime consider various plans for a hospital, to be adapted with the choice of a site.

Attorney John Nejedly told the doctors how they can form a corporation to undertake financing the new hospital.

Liquor Control Hearing Slated For Casa Orinda

A charge on two counts of serving and permitting consumption of liquor after legal closing hours is being levied against Casa Orinda.

Notice was served to Sheriff Harry A. Brown that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control will conduct a hearing on the charge May 9 at 9:30 a.m. in the Curry Building, 604 Ferry Street, Martinez.

According to ABC officials, one of their agents was in the Casa Orinda on January 1 and witnessed a bartender serve a drink to a patron at 3:00 a.m.

In addition, the agent reported that a number of patrons in the bar were permitted to consume alcoholic drinks as late as 3:00 a.m., an hour after the legal closing time.

If the charges are found to be true the Casa Orinda faces possible suspension or revocation of its liquor license.

Muni Court Hearing Set For Monday by Donovan

Arguments pro and con on the proposed municipal court for Concord will be heard Monday by Judge Hugh Donovan in Superior Court.

District Attorney Francis Collins stated that he filed objections to the new court so that the legality of the court would be established and no question could be raised in the future concerning the legality of the court.

ATTORNEY, LOUIS McKanay, Concord, has prepared findings for the judge's signature which would establish the municipal court.

The objections to the court were filed by Deputy District Attorney George McClure.

The municipal court would have greater jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases than the existing Concord Judicial District Court, bridging the gap between cases which can be handled in a judicial district and the cases which are heard in Superior Court.

COLLINS ASKED Judge Donovan to reverse his ruling that Concord is entitled to the new court on the basis of population, and to rule instead that the Richmond Municipal Court has sole jurisdiction in the area.

State law decrees that an area with 40,000 population shall have a municipal court.

Collins referred to the practical problems in the establishment of the court which would require time. Personnel would be needed and paperwork completed before the court could become a court of record.

Collins filed proposed amendaments to finding of fact by Donovan.

HE ASSERTED that finding of fact as submitted by six attorneys are insufficient and not particular enough in facts and that the Richmond Municipal Court has sole jurisdiction in the case in point.

He further stated:

"The matter of the establishment of the municipal court for the Concord judicial district is of concern not alone to attorneys, but to the taxpayers of Contra Costa County, the citizens in the area to be served, county government and the district attorney.

Board to Name School Auditor Tuesday Night

The Orinda School District Board will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Pine Grove School to select an auditor for the district, Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff announced yesterday.

At the April 1 meeting the trustees had scheduled appointment of an auditor for the May 6 regular meeting. However, Sheaff explained yesterday that since then it has been learned that the law requires naming of an auditor on or before May 1.

Fathers Invited To Hear Talk

The fathers are invited to hear Dr. Clark E. Vincent, Professor in Family Sociology at University of California, speak before the Orinda Nursery School Association members and visitors on Wednesday evening, at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of Orinda's Community Church.

Dr. Vincent will discuss with the group how to evaluate today's fashionable child-rearing literature, some of which tends to put unnecessary pressure on parents, to make their child conform to accepted standards of behavior.

PARENTS, guided by this development of their child's personality and ego.

According to Dr. Vincent, real stability and maturity is achieved by finding one's own ego-one's own "self" rather than by trying to conform to what others think we should be.

In addition to having a family of his own, Dr. Vincent has engaged in counseling and research which keeps him in close touch with the problems of today's families.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Frank Newman, assisted by Mesdames Douglas Kelly, M. H. Gardner, Richard Rawlings, Robert Angell, Dana Leavitt, and James Russell.

Parents are urged to get their baby sitters lined up early for the Nursery School's Ninth Annual Dinner Dance, held at Diablo Country Club on May 25.

Goyak Proposal Approved By Board of Supervisors

A multi-million dollar bond issue to allow purchase of highway right-of-ways will probably be sought by Contra Costa County in next year's county elections.

Action by the county board of supervisors Tuesday authorized Public Works Director Victor Sauer and County Administrator Desmond Teeter to "determine whether existing laws would permit the county to call election for a general obligation bond issue for a revolving fund for right of way acquisition for roads."

THIS BOND ISSUE WAS predicted in an exclusive story published in The Sun April 5.

Proposed by Supervisor Ivan Goyak of Richmond, the bond issue would allow the county to purchase sites several years in advance of highway construction and would, according to Goyak, result in a considerable saving for the county.

His proposal was strongly supported by Sauer who said, "I wish that the idea were mine."

THE REVOLVING FUND would be used to buy lands needed to build or widen highways proposed for as much as 20 years in the future.

According to Chet Smith, assistant public works director, the fund would eliminate the "displaced persons" created by building highways through existing homesites.

The savings to the county would be considerable," Smith said. "For instance, the road rights that we are now purchasing for the Burton-Alamo freeway for $4000 per acre will probably cost $40,000 when we acquire the funds to complete the construction."

"A revolving fund for this purpose would allow us to acquire the land now at the much lower price well in advance of the construction," Smith said.

SAUER AND TETER will report to the board, probably next week, on the bond issue proposal and the "appropriate amount" of the bond.

They will also recommend to the board the size and type of committee to assist in furthering the revolving fund program in "the event that the board determines to pursue it."

In making his proposal Goyak noted that the state already had such a system and that it was working satisfactorily.

"WE MUST PLAN AHEAD and protect our right-of-ways," Sauer stated, "or we won't be able to afford the roads that will soon be necessary."

All roads planned under the $10,250,000 bond issue of 1952 are scheduled for completion by this time next year Sauer told the board. He said that road construction had risen above predicted estimates because of the high right-of-way costs.

Sauer cited examples in the county where property costs for county and state highways had risen five times their value from 1946 to 1956.

SURVEY FOR RIGHT OF WAY work is now underway on the Sanko Road extension by the department of public works. Sanko Road is the final link in the county's east-west throughway.

Completed last year was the new Pleasant Hill Road from Acalanes junction to Pleasant Hill. Under construction and due for completion late this spring is the Pleasant Hill Bypass which will link the Sanko Road Extension, Willow Pass Road from Pittsburg to Contra Costa Highway via Willow Pass extension was completed last summer by county forces.

Driving time from Lafayette to Concord is now about 10 minutes under normal driving conditions through traffic.

Most of the right of way has also been purchased for the Orinda bypass which will bypass Orinda Village. Construction on this bypass is scheduled to begin this autumn.

AT THE SUPERVISORS meeting board chairman Ray Taylor, third district supervisor from Martinez, asked that a committee also be appointed to recommend on a road construction bond issue which Taylor deemed "inevitable."

However, the board failed to take action on this suggestion and the Goyak motion for the revolving fund committee was passed unanimously by the board.

Post Offices Open Saturdays Again, Says Postmaster

Postal service in the central portion of Contra Costa County will resume normal operations Saturday.

According to directives sent from San Francisco, there will be mail delivery Saturday and post offices will be open.

Post offices were closed last Saturday and service suspended, by order of the Postmaster General.

"Postal service curtailments have been suspended," an order informed central county postmasters early yesterday morning.

Money orders and other mail business will be transacted at all post offices and there will be no embargo on third class mail matter, according to the directive.

Monday to Friday hours of post offices will continue to be 8:30 to 5 and will not revert to the previous nine hour schedule. Saturdays, the hours will be 8:30 to noon.

The directive calls for two mail deliveries downtown Monday through Friday and one delivery downtown Saturday morning.

Everyone Ready For Replanting?

Well, gardners, are you happy now?

All this good heavy rain should be just fine for your delicate blossoms, shouldn't it?

No doubt the area will be shrieking with colorful blooms before too long.

Of course there is the possibility that the rain will mash the little flowers into something that looked like a steam roller just passed through the garden.

But if it happens, doubtless the dauntless will go out and start the whole process over again.

That's one thing you can depend on about gardeners. . . They're intrepid!

Despite the heavy rainfalls, almost an inch Wednesday alone, the temperatures were relatively pleasant.

A total of 2.10 inches of wet hit the ground during the week, bringing the season precipitation figure to 18.17.

Censorship Bill Defeat Is Asked

Doyle Says Donnelly Bill Faces Assembly Change

By LOU CANNON

A controversial State Senate book control bill described by its opponents as a "censorship measure" faces probable major revision in the Assembly Education Committee if it expects to pass, Assemblyman Donald Doyle told The Sun today.

The Lafayette Republican said that he would "continue to oppose" Senate Bill 1839 passed by the senate last week but would "probably go along" with proposals to pass the bill after deletion of its second section.

DOYLE IS CHAIRMAN of the education committee.

Introduced by Hugh Donnelly, Democrat of Turlock, SB 1839 requires school boards to describe a procedure for the selection of books for school libraries.

The bill's second section prohibits the "selection, purchase, acceptance or retention for use or placement in any school library, books which teach, advocate or sponsor . . . principles contrary to or in variance with" the school code. The section of the code referred to concerns "teaching principles of morality."

MT. DIABLO UNIFIED School District superintendent James Dent speaking in his capacity as legislative chairman of the California Association of School Administrators, reiterated his group's opposition to the Donnelly bill and termed it a "censorship bill."

Dent noted that the California Teachers association and the California Library Asscoiation also have opposed the bill.

Hearings have not been set for the bill in the assembly committee, Doyle said, but he predicted that the bill would be set for hearing within two weeks.

"There has been some talk about killing the second section," Doyle stated. "I would probably go along with this."

THE ASSEMBLYMAN ADDED that school boards presently have the power to remove any obscene or objectionable books from libraries.

"In my opinion," said Doyle, "the passage of the first section would simply reaffirm the legislature's position on this."

THE BILL WAS VIGOROUSLY assailed by Contra Costa County Senator George Miller Jr. in the senate education committee. The Martinez Democrat declared that the terms of the bill were broad and ambiguous enough to leave the school systems at the mercy of "any crackpot" who didn't like a particular book or author.

Miller was joined by two other Democrats, Fred Farr of Carmel and Alan Short of Stockton, in opposing the bill when it was heard before the senate education committee.

"In its present form the bill could outlaw Huckleberry Finn or any other book that contains language that is not proper usage," Doyle said.

"The books that Pearl Buck wrote, for instance, could also be removed from school library shelves under the terms of the bill."

Doyle also said that it was possible that books which study totalitarian systems and contain pages of quotations could be banned.

In the last session of the legislature an identical bill authored by Donnelly cleared the senate unanimously in Miller's absence and was defeated in the assembly education committee.

A move on the assembly floor to bring the bill out of committee failed at that time by seven votes.

WATER spread rapidly in the Orinda Crossroads area after an 8-inch water main broke about 1:30 a.m. last Sunday. This scene shows the barricaded area later that day in front of the Orinda Pharmacy. A good-sized portion of the sidewalk and curb were washed out in front of the pharmacy, a few inches of water covered the floor in the drug store, and some damage occurred at the Worden Travel Agency, the Orinda Barber Shop and the Casa Orinda. Residential water supply was not affected, according to the East Bay Municipal Utility District, and by 8:30 a.m. that day water service had been restored for the small area affected. Repair work was in progress this week.

Choir Will Sing Cantata Tonight

The adult and high school choirs of the Orinda Community Church will present the cantata "The Crucifixion," by John Stainer tonight at 8 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church.

The chorus of about 45 voices will be directed by Maurice D. Ellison, minister of music.

Church organist, Patricia McGee, will be the accompanist.

Winston Cundiff will be bass soloist, while Ralph Peterson, soloist at the First Presbyterian Church in Oakland, will sing the tenor solo.

"The Crucifixion" is a meditation on the sacred passion of Jesus Christ.

One of the fine features of this popular cantata is the opportunity for participation by the congregation through the singing of the hymns that are interspersed throughout the composition.

Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom, minister of the church, should like to invite the public to this event.

Easter Baptism Set For Celia McCormick

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph G. McCormack of 141 Lombardy Lane, Orinda, have chosen Easter for the baptism of their newest daughter, Celia.

Broken Main Causes Damage At Crossroads

An 8-inch cast iron water main broke about 1:30 a.m. last Sunday in the Orinda Crossroads area, with the result that the floor of the Orinda Pharmacy was flooded for a depth of a few inches; a good-sized portion of sidewalk and curb in front of the pharmacy, on Moraga Highway, was washed away, and lesser damage occurred at the Worden Travel Agency, the Orinda Barber Shop and the Casa Orinda.

This was reported this week by the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

The EBMUD stated, however, that only a small area in the business section was affected, and that water service there was restored by 8:30 a.m. Sunday. Residential service was not affected according to EBMUD.

Cause of the break was described by EBMUD as excessive pressures from culverts which led directly over the pipeline.

Presence of a number of catch basins in the vicinity, for storm drainage purposes, helped keep the flood damage as low as it was, according to EBMUD.

An area near the pharmacy was barricaded off while repair work was in progress this week.

Maynard Buehler Elected To Head Local Chamber

Maynard Buehler was elected president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the group's Tuesday luncheon meeting at Casa Orinda.

Buehler, who will succeed Merle Brown in the post, is a gunsight manufacturer in Orinda.

The balance of the slate elected at the meeting comprises:

Vice president, Stanley Allen; directors, Ernest Poll, Irving L. Leiber, John Black, John Ogden, Alfred Pettler and Robert Gemetti.

Clarence E. Betz was reelected as secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

Installation of the new officers will take place June 4.

In other business before the members, Clarence Betz reported that bids on the Village By-Pass will be called for after July 1, according to conversation with county officials.

Horace Breed, parking committee chairman, reported to the chamber on his meeting with officials of East Bay Municipal Utility District concerning the land which his committee is attempting to secure for a commuter parking area.

EBMUD has not as yet evolved a firm plan for the property, according to Breed.

Breed and Robeson Smith spoke at length on Monday nights meeting of the civic affairs committee.

The story of that meeting is elsewhere on this page.

Chamber members also heard from Betz that the county is planning a road, probably four lanes, from Mt. Diablo Boulevard near the Kaiser quarry to connect with the proposed Shepherd Canyon Freeway in Moraga Valley.

Country Club Togs Doubles Store Space

Country Club Togs, well-known sportswear store at 101 Orinda Highway in the Village, has doubled its space and is holding a special sale in celebration of the expansion.

The doubling of space has been accomplished by the establishment of additional quarters in the store next door, formerly occupied by the Village Cleaners, which has moved to the new Village Shopping Center.

Thus, Country Club Togs now occupies its aditional space as well as its former quarters.

Mrs. Clarice Helm, the owner, has been in business here for over six and a half years. She has a son, John, who, with his wife and three sons, lives in Lafayette.

This is the second exhibit the Orinda Art Center has had in Oakland, the first being two years ago at the Oakland Museum of Art.

Orinda Parents To Hear Talk

Goals for the gifted will be discussed next Tuesday night in Orinda, when Professor Harold D. Carter of the University of California meets with the Orinda Parents' Curriculum Committee.

Tuesday's meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Pine Grove School library will be the second planned by the Orinda comimttee on the subject of educating gifted children.

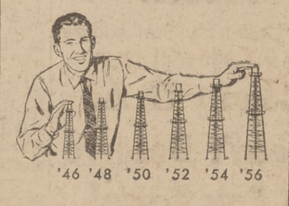
Oil geologists probe the ocean floor for clues to new oil fields
THE OCEAN FLOOR IS THE NEWEST FRONTIER in our search for oil to help meet the growing demand of motorists, home owners, farmers, industry and the Armed Forces.
Last year Standard's scientists explored millions of acres offshore and on land in the Western Hemisphere. Once again we discovered new oil deposits that will help supply the 830 gallons of petroleum everyone in the U. S. will use this year . . . and the 1000 gallons they'll need by 1965.
With oil becoming more difficult and expensive to find, Standard's investment in exploration is increasing . . . $119,000,000 last year. That's one way we can find new oil to help keep ahead of the nation's growing need for products from petroleum.
Progress in the West means.:.:
U. S. oil reserves must continue to keep pace with rising demand



Daily U. S. oil consumption has risen from 5 million barrels in 1946 to 9 million barrels in 1956 and is expected to reach 12½ million by 1965.

FOR LAND'S SAKE

By LLOYD K. KING

Here and There Amongst Realty World Figures

And just what's in a name?

Why did we pick this name . . . well the legal concept of land is "the land and all things attached thereto". . . and Webster defines sake as an objective, hence the objective of our column is to talk about land, and all the things that are attached to it . . . and also the people vitally interested in it . . . Realtors, Builders, Appraisers, Financiers, and YOU.

BUD SMITH (Real Estate Appraiser—Walnut Creek) . . . discovered the only property owners in Contra Costa County that weren't unhappy about their last tax bill! . . . have business property in downtown Pittsburg . . . total tax bill $2.32 . . . (one foot seven inch strip fronting on 4th Street).

ROUGH YEAR FOR BUILDERS? LOU SCOTT (local Contractor) has made reservations to leave from Nairobi in August on African Safari . . . vacation—or getting away from it all?

LOCAL SUCCESS STORY—Walnut Creek Entrepeneur, JOHN P. ENSLOW, was bank messenger for American Trust Company in 1931. At that time James Lockwood was Executive Vice President, later became President and Chairman of the Board.

The front yard of his home in Walnut Creek (part of Crest View Estates) is now adorned with John's gorgeous new home . . . (architects note . . . specky cedar used throughout . . . looks fabulous!)

There's 'Country' in the Country Club

Walked over site of proposed PLEASANT VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB on Grayson Road with FRANK LADD (Realtor) . . . this is the Hiram Hall Ranch. Hi's grandparents settled here many years ago. Never realized it, but this is one of the most beautiful spots in all of Contra Costa County.

Frank and Hi have worked on this project for two and one-half years and the results of their efforts are shown in the elaborate and practical plans that they have developed. This club will be a unique addition to the recreation facilities of the Bay Area.

WAYNE BAILEY, Exec. Sec'y Contra Costa Real Estate Board (also a bank messenger years ago) indicates that his Board fears proposed PARK on EBMUD property near San Pablo Dam will be filled by people from other areas and paid for by local citizens.

GEORGE HOYT observing a young lady, who had just parked wrong way on Lincoln Avenue next to NUT BOWL in Walnut Creek and was putting money in meter: "Jingles . . . how does she know which end to pay for?"

BILL MARTIN (local Savings and LoanER) indicated recent change in FHA down payment requirements was inconsequential . . . actual dollar decreases were minute.

Local Realtors exercise their brains

Five local Walnut Creekites just took exam for American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers—Case Study No. 1 (part of National Association of Real Estate Boards). Exam took eight hours . . . four of the exhausted were NORMAN BUCKHARDT, A. J. (Buck) JOHNSON, REID BELLS, and H. F. (BUD) SMITH . . . grading will take two months . . . WISH THEM LUCK!

The Board of Directors of the Walnut Creek Business Property Owners' Association meets monthly at the office of Ring & Turner . . . concerned with Walnut Creek's progress and interests of its business property owners . . . currently giving thought to how off-street parking might be implemented in City.

From time-to-time I will be discussing subjects of pertinence at greater length . . . let me know if you have any preferences.

BEN SWIG'S speech at the Real Estate Mart Breakfast Monday was outstanding . . . didn't think rapid transit in the Bay Area was feasible . . . to big an investment . . . not enough people would use it . . . automobiles being too strong a habit with a lot of us.

A New Personality--New Feature Join The Sun

A new personality appears this week in the pages of The Sun, and will be a regular feature in the future.

The personality is Lloyd K. King, local business man and affiliate member of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, and the feature is a sparkling new column. "For LAND'S Sake."

The column will be devoted to happenings and people in the Real Estate and allied fields, and it is designed to be of special interest to the homeowner, and the prospective home purchaser who wants to be on top of the latest trends.

LLOYD KING, who graduated from the University of California in 1950, recently formed his own company, the Lance Company, a real estate development and financing firm, at 1770 Bonanza Street, Walnut Creek.

Quick Sketches to Preserve Memorie Of Maydaze Fun

Well known local artist Katy Madsen gives "Maydaze" credit for starting her artistic career.

"It was working on the Walnut Heights PTA "Maydaze" a number of years ago on the poster painting committee that started me taking painting seriously," said she, a busy mother of three.

The Walnut Heights PTA annual "Maydaze" which this year will be held on May 11, has engaged Katy Madsen to do her "quick sketches" as she has for the past two years.

Recently she won a blue ribbon at the Art-A-Rama held in Concord. She has exhibited for two years at the Berkeley Sidewalk Show and at the San Francisco Art Festival for three years.

She won the Best of Show at the Contra Costa Fair in 1955 for a pastel of her young son Kenny. She is currently chairman of the "Pageant of Arts" sponsored by the Diablo Art Association which is to be held in downtown Walnut Creek for a week in May.

County Crusade Group Elects Lafayette Man

Members of the newly-formed Contra Costa County United Crusade Fund met recently at the Memorial Youth Center in Richmond.

After approving by-laws and electing a board of directors, the members were introduced to their new county campaign chairman, Henley Worthington of Concord. He reported on progress of the 1957 campaign.

Worthington called for concerted and unified action on the part of all citizens.

Duncan H. Knudsen, chairman of the organization meeting, introduced Sam Stewart, president of U.B.A.C., who spoke. In officially welcoming the new Fund into the United Bay Area Crusade, Stewart "recognized this meeting as one of the high points in the formation of U.B.A.C.," the nation's third largest fund raising enterprise.

Stewart praised all Contra Costans for their efforts during 1956 in being second only to San Mateo County in achievement of their goal. He said the incorporation of a county-wide Fund and the added strength of unity, Contra Costa County has every opportunity of reporting the finest campaign since 1952, when the first United Crusade was created in Richmond.

The 90 member board of directors then met and selected Duncan H. Knudsen of 3825 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, as their first president.

Heart Drive Collects $37,000

The Heart Fund drive conducted in Contra Costa County during February netted $37,000, according to Dr. James F. Embick, president of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

Final figures released recently included returns from "not at home" envelopes left in homes where residents were gone when the volunteers called on Heart Sunday, February 24.

Dr. Embick stated that these contributions continued coming in to the Heart Fund office in Walnut Creek for six weeks following the campaign.

A TOTAL AMOUNT of over $37,000 has been collected to date by the Heart Association, including some $4000 in memorial gifts.

This leaves the organization short in the amount of $4000 towards the $41,000 goal set at the start of the fiscal year, according to Dr. Embick.

"I AM HOPEFUL that this amount will be forthcoming in the form of memorial gifts and other donations before the end of the fiscal year in July," Dr. Embick said, "since it is vital to our research, education and community service programs that our goal be met."

He stated that 35 per cent of the funds collected in Contra Costa County go directly to the national and state offices for the American Heart Association's program.

The remainder is retained locally for local research, education and service.

Girl Scouts in Action is For Idea Exchange

Eight Girl Scout Troops will gather at Acalanes High School in Lafayette on April 27 to participate in the annual "Girl Scouts in Action" program.

This is Diablo Valley Council of the Girl Scouts of America mass exhibit and demonstration show "Girl Scouts in Action" came into being four years ago—the result of many requests from the Scouts in local troops, who wanted to share ideas, exchange methods and meet other girls in other areas, who were interested in Scouting.

Adult leaders also felt a need of closer communication and a chance to evaluate their particular program with that of other troops.

With this request from both girls and leaders, the Council evolved a plan where Scouts and leaders could "do something together," and at the same time, show the public through demonstrations and exhibits, what was being accomplished as the Scouting program progressed.

A contest has been held for the best posters depicting "Girl Scouts in Action" in local troops.

Terry Loveland of Troop 232 of Orinda won first place place, while Betty Shippey of Troop 88 of Walnut Creek came in second.

Seven other girls won honorable mention blue ribbons for their efforts. All posters were placed in business houses and public buildings.

Car Buyers Can Compare At Coming Spring Show

The Spring Auto Show which will take place on April 26 and 27 in the parking lot at Capwell's, Walnut Creek, will offer car shoppers a chance to compare all the models of the current year, including the latest designs from the American manufacturers and the best models available from European factories.

Each of the many displays from distributors in Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Pleasant Hill will be accompanied by someone with complete information, charts, pamphlets, etc. about the performance factors of the cars.

The autos will be displayed Friday, April 26, from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. and on Saturday, April 27, from 9:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

The show should provide some lively discussions of the relative merits of the American product versus the European.

So, if you need to decide whether you want to assert your "masculine virility" by shifting through four forward speeds, or whether you'd rather indulge in "push-buttton driving" you'll find the answers to your questions at the Spring Auto Show.

The ladies will be interested to compare the luxurious interiors of the American models against the sleek low lines of the foreign designs.

There'll be something for all at the Spring Auto Show on April 26 and 27 in the parking lot of Capwell's in Walnut Creek.

Correlative passages from Science and Health include the following (45:16): "Glory be to God, and peace to the struggling hearts! Christ hath rolled away the stone from the door of human hope and faith, and through the revelation of demonstration of life in God, hath elevated them to possible at-one-ment with the spiritual idea of man and his divine Principle, Love."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:10): "Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins."

Fault in Shop Center Related By Famed Realtor

The new suburban shopping centers are being organized all wrong, Ben Swig, owner of San Francisco's Fairmont Hotel and nationally-known realtor, told members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, Monday morning.

Swig told how the "anchor" store or larger store is usually put in the front, and the smaller stores get the rear positions.

He said that the large stores should be placed at the back, and the smaller stores to the front, so that shoppers would have to walk by them. The parking area should also be in front, he commented.

AN EXAMPLE of placing the big stores in the front is in the suburban shopping area in Palo Alto, he said.

The parking area should be six times the area taken up by the stores. Otherwise there are problems, such as in the Broadway shopping area, Walnut Creek, where a parking space is hard to find on Saturday.

Swig said that he felt the proposed nine-county transit system will not get the approval of the people because they are accustomed to getting about with automobiles, and the costs of such systems are too high.

LAFAYETTE and Orinda will have to develop large parking areas is they plan to stay in business, Swig predicted.

Acalanes Chairman Tells Of 3 Key Tax Factors

(Editor's Note: Because of the mounting pressure on our taxes, it seems worthwhile to urge all citizens to inform themselves on the services that taxes provide. The Sun today presents the first of a series of articles on the Acalanes Union High School Distrcit and how much the Acalanes District costs.

(In subsequent articles we will discuss in detail the program and expenses of the Acalanes High School District, which presently includes Las Lomas, Acalanes and Miramonte.)

In discussing the Acalanes Union High School District, let's start with the tax rate.

Three primary considerations determine the school tax:

1. The number of children being educated.
2. The standard of education being applied.
3. The cost of providing schools to house increasing enrollments.

"We should examine each of these determining tax factors," Mrs. Alice McBride, chairman of the Acalanes High School District Board, says.

"First the number of children to be educated.

"Since its inception the Acalanes District has grown 700 per cent. Last year the district grew 20 per cent. Studies show that future growth will accelerate, not diminish.

"THE INCREASED expense for educating increased numbers is aggravated by the fact that as costs and the number of students rise, enrollment grows at a faster pace than the tax base or 'assessed valuation.' For instance, last year the district enrollment grew 20 per cent while the assessed valuation grew only 10 per cent. This means that each $100 assessed valuation on property must pay a larger tax."

The district board chairman also points out:

"The recent reassessment on property in our county by order of the State Board of Equalization caused all county schools to receive considerably less income from the state—income which had to be made up then by the local taxpayers."

On top of this, Mrs. McBride observes, schools are faced with the problem that (disregarding growth and other factors) general costs are increasing, just as all other costs are these days.

"LET'S CONSIDER the second point—the standard of education," she continues. "Do you want a good standard of education for your children, an average one or a poor one?

"The Acalanes Board of Trustees believes that you want a good standard.

"To achieve this, trustees have sought qualified teachers and administrators with salaries above the county average so that we can attract and keep them. A qualified teaching staff and a sound standard of education are inseparable."

EIGHTY PER CENT of the operational cost of most schools, including those of the Acalanes District, goes to salaries of all kinds, Mrs. McBride states.

"This includes both teachers and service employees," she says.

"As long as the district adheres to a sound educational standard, there is not much that can be done to lower the salary factor in school expenditures."

The ratio of pupils per teacher is important, too, she declares. She stresses that the number of students enrolling each year "automatically sets the size of the instructional staff and incidental employees" and that " a desired ratio of one teacher per 24 pupils has been held."

OTHER OPERATING COSTS (utility bills, books, equipment, maintenance, transportation, etc.) make up the remaining 20 per cent of the "operational" budget, the trustees' chairman says, commenting:

"The district has always practiced economy in these expenses consistent with good teaching."

"It boils down to this—district costs are primarily governed by the number of children we are educating," Mrs. McBride emphasizes.

"Some adjustment could be made by lowering educational standards, but this we do not wish to do."

After letting that remark "sink in," the chairman goes on:

"AND NOW the third point—school housing needs.

"Determined not to overshoot its building needs, the district has built classrooms on a 'build as you grow' basis, keeping just one year ahead of current enrollments.

"Construction funds come primarily from the sale of bonds which are approved by a two-thirds majority vote.

"BECAUSE in the Acalanes District it is not possible to raise enough money for acute building needs through bonding funds alone, additional money for construction is raised through current taxes.

"Essentially your property tax is determined each year by the district's operating costs, plus its building expenditure and bond retirement obligations, minus the 'average daily attendance' assistance from the state."

(The next article in this series will deal with growth prospects for the Acalanes High School District.—The Editor.)

Hecklers Harass Speakers Talks At Larinda Meet

Deliberate heckling of speakers was the novel method of indoctrinating Larinda Toastmasters in one of the hazards speakers must learn to overcome.

In the weekly meeting held at Casa Orinda on Monday last Topics Master Bill Thaler arranged for two hecklers for each impromptu one minute speaker.

Least bothered by the "rowdy" elements was Lowell Dygert, who was awarded the table topics trophy.

Following the topics, newly elected president Gordon Forrest introduced "Dunc" Duncan, toastmaster for the evening.

"Dunc" presented four main speakers, Ralph Welch, Dick Elliott, Vince Gates and Gene Busse.

Gene was winner of the speaker's cup for his humorous and well organized talk on "Natural Gestures."

Among the guests were John McCosker, Ray Stroube, Dick Wheaton and Sherwood Knight.

Knight, instructor in speech at Acalanes Adult classes, was asked to add his evaluation of the program.

This was the first meeting conducted by the officers elected for the coming six months.

Besides president Forrest, they are Ed Riksheim, educational vice president, Gene Duncan, administrative vice president, Ralph Presher, sergeant-at-arms and Lowell Dygert, treasurer.

Miramonte Girl Wins 2nd At Bay Area Science Fair

Pat Quinn, a Miramonte High School sophomore, was awarded second place honors in her division, 10th Grade Biological Field, at the recent San Francisco Bay Area Science Fair.

Her project was entitled 'Experiments in Heredity." It was a detailed study of the genetic ratios and effects of radiation with fruit flies.

Pat was the only student from the Orinda high school to enter the Bay Area Science Fair this year, since the school was only allowed one entry because of its small enrollment.

Principal James Lewis announces that Pat's project will be on display at Miramonte during Public Schools Week, April 29 through May 3.

MISS QUINN first began her experiment last September as her biology class project.

She started with house flies, which later caused her to experiment with fruit flies (Drosophila), taking first place at the Miramonte Fair last January.

From this point, Pat enlarged her study in preparation for the Bay Area Science Fair.

Those who helped her along the way included Dr. Curt Stern of Orinda, a geneticist at the University of California; Robert Campbell, her biology instructor at Miramonte, and Dr. George Fraser of Orinda for the irradiation of her flies.

ACCORDING TO one of the members of the judging committee, "the committee had a difficult time deciding between Pat's project and the first place project."

Her future plans include a continuation of this study, with the hope of taking first place next year; and, later, attending Stanford University in two years, to work in the field of life sciences.

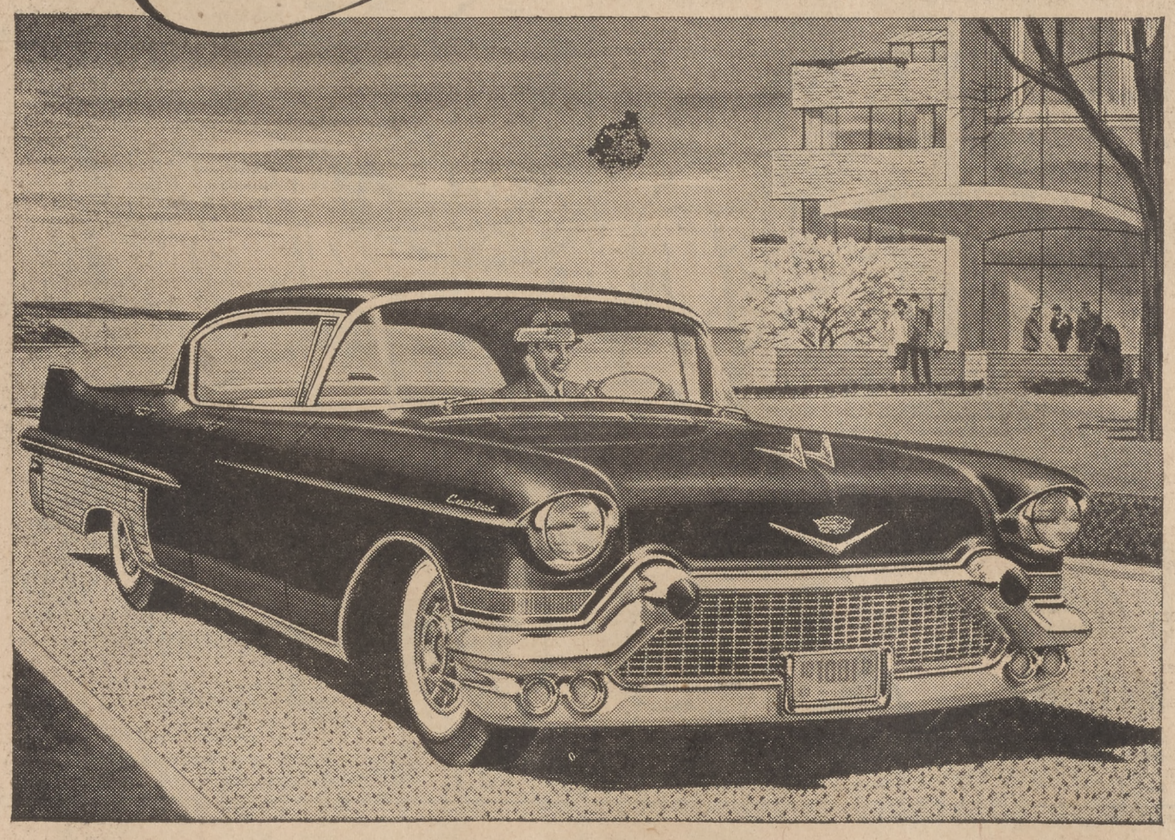
Cadillac



The Choice That is Never Challenged!

Drive a Cadillac over any period of time you wish—and the odds are that no one will ever question your choice of a motor car.

For almost everyone understands the instincts that lead a man to Cadillac. Rare is the motorist, in fact, who does not have his own heart set on the "car of cars".

Certainly, this is as it should be. For Cadillac's virtues are simply too numerous to be overlooked—and too apparent to be misunderstood.

Who, for instance, could behold a new Cadillac and not proclaim it the most beautiful and majestic of automobiles?

Who could ride in a new Cadillac and not recognize its extraordinary luxury and comfort?

Who could drive a new Cadillac and not pronounce it the crowning achievement of automotive engineering?

And who—knowing of Cadillac's many economies of ownership could fail to recognize it as the finest investment in all motordom?

* * *

Indeed, the reasons for choosing Cadillac are as valid as they are numerous—and we urge you to visit your dealer at your first opportunity and discover all of them for yourself.

Why not spend an hour at the wheel—and select your favorite Cadillac model as your own?

You can rest assured—the whole world will approve your choice!

Red Cross Still Accepting Donations in Late Drive

One hundred per cent of its goal was reported this week by Alamo Red Cross volnnteers in the annual drive for funds to maintain Mt. Diablo Chapter.

Alamo workers collected a total of $130000.

Orinda reported 98 per cent and Danvivlle, 85 per cent.

AMOUNTS raised in the communities within the Mt. Diablo Chapter area are: Alamo, $1300 (100 per cent); Orinda, $7200 (98 per cent); Danville, $1868 (85 per cent); Sun Valley, $398 (61 per cent); Lafayette, $4442.71 (59 per cent); Ygnacio Valley, $206 (51 per cent); Plseaant Hill, $511.34 (46 per cent); Walnut Creek, $1623.35 (19 per cent).

The $18,294.28 total contributions for the Mt. Diablo Chapter represents only 63 per cent of the minimum funds needed to carry on local Red Cross activities, estimated at $29,00, officials say.

Governor Goodwin J. Knight, urging public support of Red Cross, pointed out that in its disaster program alone, Red Cross last year expended nearly $8,614,000 in California to assist victims o ftwo floods, a train wreck and six serious conflagrations.

More than $8,500,000 of this total went to help the people made homeless by the floods which swept over sections of California just before Christmas, 1955.

RED CROSS workers assisted 9916 families to restore their homes and businesses after the waters receded.

Since the end of the fiscal year, the local committee pointed out, additional aid ha been given victims of the Marysville fire in August, the San Bernardino fire in September, a fire near Placentia and the Cleveland National Forest fire in November, the Malibu brush fire of last Christmas week, and those hit by the recent earthquake in the San Francisco area.

Elsewhere in the United States Red Cross workers were on the scene in Dallas, Texas, within a half hour after the tornado roared through the city.

Red Cross is currently helping victims of the floods in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky, the tidal wave in the Hawaiian Islands and blizzards in several mid-western states. Relief for Hungarian refugees is continuing in Austria and at Camp Kilmer.

Realizing that many residents who wish to aid Red Cross work were not avaivlable during house-to-house canvass, the local committee has asked that contributions be mailed to Mt. Diablo Chapter, 1395 Ygnacio Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Diablo Parents Plan May Picnic

May 11 will be family picnic day at Curry Creek Park in an all day affair sponsored by the Mt. Diablo Elementary School Parents Club.

All proceeds from the affair will be used for the benefit of the school, announced Mrs. Martin Wright, chairman of the event.

ECCJC to Hold Annual Open House

East Contra Costa Junior College, now seven years old, will be host to the public on April 28 from 2 to 4 p.m. at its annual open house.

College Director Karl O. Drexel said the entire faculty will be present to talk with guests and to explain the work of the college and its future.

Etudents, co-partners in the annual hospitality event, will escort visitors about the 100-acre campus and to the Student Activities Building where refreshments will be served by the East Campus Women's Club.

The $250,000 Student Activities Building, dedicated January 31, will be the focal point of interest, Director Drexel said.

Tables will be set up in the dining area where faculty members will be available to meet parents and other guests.

The building is the second permanent structure to be erected in accordance with the master plan. The first structure was the $385,000 Library - Classroom building which also houses the administration offices.

A third building, the $297,000 gymnasium, now under construction, is almost half completed. A fourth building now in the planning stage, is a $300,000 vocational arts structure.

All capital outlay for buildings, for initial purchase of the land and its development, and for some 13 temporary structures, has come out of income on a pay-as-you-go basis without recourse to a bond issue.

There are now more than 1200 full-time and 2800 part-time students.

The college is located on Golf Links Road off Contra Costa Highway.

AFS Unit Will Tour Gardens

Acalanes Folk Dancers Use UN Atmosphere

The Acalanes Folk Dance Group held a monthly dance at the Danville Veterans' Hall Saturday.

The United Nation theme was evident. Large colorful posters advertised foreign countries and flags of all nations.

The dance program was posted on the wall. Every dance was selected from a different country, and each was written in a foreign language which included Chinese and Arabic.

The only American dances were the squares. Ted Darger of Martinez and Frank Enearl of Walnut Creek called the squares.

Vacation Flight Provdes Thrill For Local Woman

A dead engine 275 miles out of Hawaii supplied 45 minutes of thrill for Mrs. Larry Blakesley of 200 Lakewood Road in Walnut Creek.

En route to Hawaii for a two-week vacation with her twin sister, Mrs. J. B. Henry of Ashland, Oregon, Mrs. Blakesley was a passenger on a four-engined DC-7 when the plane captain informed the flight that one engine was not working.

The Coast Guard was alerted and the Honlulu airport sent out an escort plane to meet the scheduled airliner.

When a safe landing was made at Honolulu airport, on time, the passengers were greeted by ambulances, fire trucks and a completely protected airport.

Mrs. Blarkesley and her husband, Larry, operate the furniture store which bears their name in Lafayette.

A mystery play with highlights of irresistible comedy.

A LITTLE girl named Sally, playing with her friends in the abandoned stable of the old Penny estate, discovers a jolly and easy-going tramp, who has climbed in there to spend the night.

Sally's nimble imagination at once conceives him to be the long-lost Mr. Penny, and with the aid of a little circumstantial evidence, she persuades her friends to accept him as Mr. Penny, too.

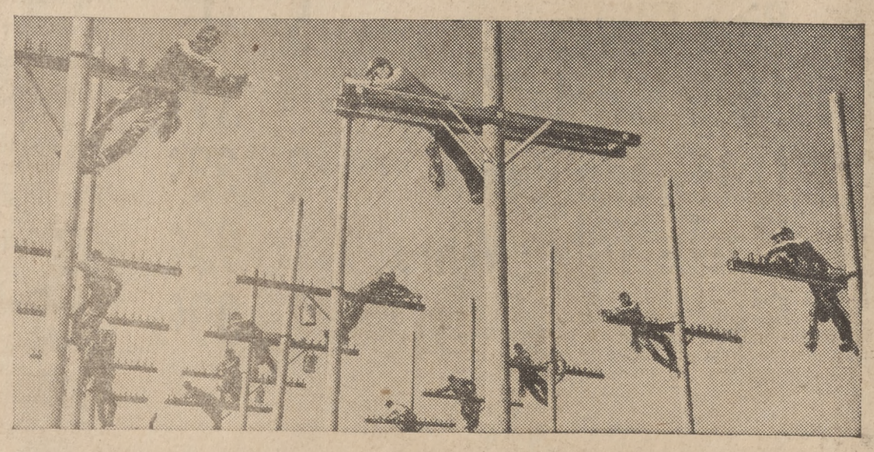
Chuck Luhring—young man getting up in this world

Just over a year ago, when Chuck Luhring decided to look into telephone work, he knew little about it. But because he showed good promise, he was hired and trained with regular pay. Today Chuck's a telephone lineman with a solid career ahead of him. In a business where management comes up from the ranks, there are lots of chances for promotion. The work is steady, and the pay keeps up with advancement. To Chuck, these things make a good job. And the fact telephone jobs are good, pays off for you, too. It means capable people are attracted into the business. And this means better service for you



"Classroom in the sky," where Chuck Luhring got his training, is one of many telephone schools up and down the Coast. Others train operators, business office people, installers, and so on. Giving good people good training is another way we see to it that your service is in capable hands.

Pay Increase For D.A.? Now Is Time to Fight!

A bill which would increase the salary of District Attorney Francis Collins and members of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has passed the State Assembly and is now in the hands of the State Senate.

If the senate passes this measure, it will become law, unless it is vetoed by Governor Knight, as a similar bill was a couple of years ago.

This measure would specifically raise the salary of District Attorney Collins from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

We believe that the job of district attorney for this county is worth $15,000 per year — and possibly more — but it should be a full time job.

We do not believe that Collins deserves the salary, or the increase.

We do not stand alone in our belief, because Governor Knight, in vetoing the former bill, commented that the Contra Costa County district attorney was not deserving of the requested raise because of his lucrative private law practice.

Collins very rarely appears in court as the district attorney, but he is frequently seen in court when his private practice demands it.

All of his deputies, and other attornies attached to the district attorney's office, have private practices.

Collins has a very poor law enforcement record of the period that he has served in office.

Unfortunately, it is now legal for the district attorney to have a private practice, and this should be changed.

But there is no excuse for increasing the salary of the district attorney when he is operating as Collins is now operating. In effect, we would be increasing the salary of a man who is not only doing a mediocre job, but doing it part time at that.

Furthermore, when the county needs a legal opinion, the district attorney's office frequently turns around and hires outside "experts".

And to add insult to injury, this office is one of the poorest — if not the poorest — in the state.

What can we do about it?

We cannot, now, change the law so that a private practice would be prohibited for the district attorney and his staff, but we can act to prevent the salary from being increased.

Now is the time to write to Governor Knight in Sacramento and urge that he veto this bill, if it should pass the senate, and it probably will.

Your letter may not seem like a great contribution to you, but if Governor Knight gets enough of them he will realize how people in this county feel about the district attorney's office, and he will act accordingly.

Do your part. Write your letter now, and let the administration, both here and in Sacramento, know how you feel about the Contra Costa County District Attorney's office.

Do We Want Less Tax?

"April is the cruelest month," said the poet, a statement the taxpaying millions of America would swear by.

As every citizen knows, April is the time to total up and remit to Uncle Sam. How much can I deduct? Did Junior make $600? What about the medical bills? And, let's see, where the dickens did I put my gas receipts?

SOME OF THESE questions are unimportant and not a few are slightly funny. All of us both recognize and laugh at the traditional harrased caricature of Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Taxpayer.

But there are plenty of tax questions which are very, very important and not the slightest bit funny.

Will taxes be higher this year, and, if they are, what about next? Can we afford to let taxes go higher or can Congress and our state and county governmental bodies possibly lower them?

If taxes are lowered, where will the money come from to continue adequate schools, hospitals, and highways? Or do we have to look forward to an ever increasing spiral both in taxes and cost of living?

THE ANSWER TO these questions have long provided a torrid debate in Congress, one that shows little signs of abating in the near future. Similiar questions are asked perenially by the State Legislature and by county agencies as well.

And, in April at least, these selfsame questions are dear to the hearts of us all.

We asked several area residents the question: "Do you feel that local, state and federal taxes are too high? If you do, what do you think can be done about the situation?" Here are the replies:

MRS. C. A. HALL, 3685 Crescent Drive, Lafayette: "I absolutely do think they're too high. I don't know what to do about it, but they're too high."

BYRON H. NELSON, 577 Miner Road, Orinda: "They're definitely too high. If we followed President Hoover's recommendations, we would trim the taxes considerably."

ROBERT KILPATRICK, 49 Dos Osos, Orinda: "I certainly agree they're too high. Outside of a complete investigation into ways of cutting down the cost of government, I don't see what can be done."

STANLEY H. SODER, 3241 Sweet Drive, Lafayette: "They are too high, but nothing can be done about it. As a matter of fact, they should stay high in as much as we have a high cost to our economy. We're living in an inflationary spiral: and if the taxes were cut, it would be disastrous."

MRS. GUS LARSON, 1630 Campbell Lane, Walnut Creek: "I know the taxes are too high. They raised my taxes on improvements last year and I haven't bought a nail."

MDS BURGESS RUSSELL, 150 Collins Drive, Pleasant Hill: "Who doesn't think they're too high. They're fabulous! But I don't know what we can do about it; we have to have our schools. If there was some way too cut taxes it would be wonderful, but what's the answer? We put men into office hoping they'll know.

STANLEY DEBILZAN, 407 Gladys Drive, Pleasant Hill: "Yes, I think they are too high. I think they could lower them— but I don't know how."

MISS VIVIAN M. CANTONI, 232 Park Lane, Walnut Creek: "Land taxes are too high in this area. A person of my means can't afford to pay them. If we all banded together and complained, maybe something would be done about it."

MRE. EUGNE BUSH JR., 250 Northgate Concord: "Generally, I do feel that taxes are too high. They (county taxes) are becoming more equalized, however. I don't know what can be done about it. Of course industry helps, but people don't want more industry in a residential district. Its a vicious circle.

MRS. GLEN SMOKE, 220 Belmont Road, Concord: "I think they are too high but don't know what to do about it. I wish they'd bring them down, though.

MRS. RAY CAMBRA, 3117 Claudia Drive, Concord: "I haven't thought about it since we got our tax bill. We're going to need more taxes because our schools are very crowded."

MRS. LOREN BRISCOE, 1821 Briscoe Lane, Concord: "I don't know what can be done but feel taxes are too high. Taxes are neccesary for the things we need, though."

MRS. RALPH WILLBUR, 3481 Euclid Drive, Concord: "Yes, I think they are too high, but I don't know what can be done about it. We've talked about it often. Farmers can hardly get anything, but if Hungary needs it, we give it too them."

MRS. J. B. CARROLL JR., 3161 Hacienda Drive, Concord: "They sure are too high, but I don't know what they can do about it. The cost of living is outrageous."

MRS. PETER DE FREMERY, 156 Agnes Way,Concord: "I think everyone would agree there. I don't know what they can do. That is a problem."

MR. AND MRS. G. R. LUNDEEN, 3100 Athene Court, Concord: "Well, yes, we do. If they cut down on some of the unneccessary bond issues, that would be a beginning. We've got to have good schools, but some of the other bond issues would bear looking into."

Don't Quote Me, but . .

Regarding Hobbies-- Are Yours Medium-Sized?

By DOROTHY PATTERSON

In the dictionary, one of the definitions of "hobby" is "A medium-sized horse," which necessarily changes my opening sentence, because I was about to assert that nowadays nearly everybody has one.

But even we don't have a medium-sized horse, although we do have a boy that eats like one—but we are now getting even farther away from the dissertation I was about to make on the profound subject of hobbies as they exist in America at the present time.

We Americans are a lucky group in the world today because our working hours are short, our pay is pretty good—before taxes—and the result is that many, many thousands of people now have ample opportunity to take up and enjoy a hobby whether they can afford it or not.

Some people really have them

This is not the medium-sized horse type hobby to which I refer, although some people do have ponies, medium-sized horses and the larger-sized horses available, since as hobbyists, many Americans still enjoy horsing around a bit in their spare time.

It is the persons that has the type of hobby that occupies his interest in his spare time that is closest to my thinking at this moment, principally because I don't know who or what will be closest to my thinking in the next few moments.

From my own experience I would heartily advise everyone, young or old, to take up a hobby and have fun; but I never like to give advice because nobody ever takes it . . . not even my groom.

Once, long ago, I advised him very tenderly:

"You should wed a gorgeous blonde who cooks very well. She should be strong, able to move pianos," I added daintily.

Advice that was blithely ignored

"She should have more wealth for you than just my li'l ol' inheritance," I advised him selflessly as a tear ran down my cheek.

But no, he went right ahead and married me, anyway. Bungling, bungling. Always bungling.

Having been removed from circulation in my prime, there was little recourse but to find a hobby to enjoy. In jig time I had one and soon, too, I found a kind, understanding editor, willing and eager to help me earn my bicycle.

What to do when ideas aren't?

Occasionally, though, I run out of ideas on what to write about.

This is very natural, says my editor, but it also has the effect of driving him frantic because it is at times like these that I have to go into his office, where we chat and kick a few ideas around together. This type of session is known in the newspaper game as "brainstorming."

The only trouble is—when my brain gets started, my editor starts storming. Oooh, then what I wouldn't give for just one medium-sized horse . . . saddled . . . fast . . . considerate!

Diablo Valley Dads to Take Daughters on Camp Trip

Forty fathers from the Diablo Valley area are volunteering a weekend of work this spring so that their Girl Scout daughters may enjoy two weeks of camping at Camp Sierra Woodlands in the Gold Lake Recreational Area of Tahoe National Forest.

Charles R. Weidner of Walnut Creek, chairman of the Site Maintenance and Development Committee, is enrolling volunteers for the work weekends which will cover the first three weekends in May.

Weidner announced that the following men will serve as work weekend foremen: S. E. Roycroft of Walnut Creek, Howard Prater of Pleasant Hill, Col. Alex Grendon of Orinda, James Caraway of Ygnacio Valley, Charles Sedam of Lafayette, E. W. Wigit of Danville, Ed Logue of Alamo and Harry Betaque of Lafayette.

EACH OF THESE men will head up a crew of from five to eight men.

Biggest project this spring, according to Weidner, will be the addition of a new well and pump to the camp's water system.

Other projects to be undertaken in addition to the usual maintenance work will include improvements in electrical wiring and the building of additional storage space for craft and camp supplies.

FAMILIES GENERALLY accompany the working fathers on the weekends and an opportunity is afforded the entire family to become better acquainted with the camp and the lakes and streams of the Gold Lake area.

Mothers and children also find many tasks around camp with which they may assist.

Weidner reported that over half of the required manpower has been signed up already.

Letters to The Editor

DOGS

Dear Editor:

We are taught from our grammar school days to take a civic pride in the community in which we live. Four years ago, new homes were purchased in the Holbrook Heights area and we purchased one, feeling that each person would be as interested as we are in maintaining a lawn and shrubs. Such has not been the case!

. . . First a fence was put up, completely encircling the back yards, patios were built and lawns planted. The front of the house was landscaped and the Dog turned loose on the streets . .

Our first attempts were personally to make an appeal that we too would enjoy a nice, green lawn. Then we called the police department who in turn referred us to the pound. The truck came by and advised us that since the dogs had tags they were free to run unless we could obtain actual photographs of them destroying property, or were willing to go to court and sign a complaint against our neighbors. This would have entailed several complaints for out of eight occupied houses on our street, there were 17 dogs, five of them pups who we were told did not require tags until they were six months old . . . I might also add that we have appealed to our own homeowner's association. Are there enough civic minded people in this community who would stand behind a law which would require people who wish to have pets to confine them to their own property boundaries.

I am tired of carrying a shovel, appealing to people (and) calling the pound . . .

FLUORIDATION

Dear Editor:

Your article on fluoridation was the most "one-sided" article I have ever read. You should never write such an article unless you know the facts on both sides. And unfortunately you don't know the truth.

As an editor you should believe in freedom of the press, and not take one side. Mass medication is unconstitutional. What happens to our freedom?

Our New Classrooms Are Unsafe in a Disaster

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

"School construction must provide for adequate disaster shelter!"

"This warning was issued to some 300 Northern California school administrators and civil defense officials April 10 in San Francisco.

" 'The extent of glass that we expose our children to appalls me,' said Dr. Frank B. Lindsay, chief of the bureau of secondary education of the State Department of Education.

"Dr. Lindsay contended that future school buildings must be designed to give all possible protection against the blast, heat and fallout of a nuclear bomb explosion.

"The conference was one of a series sponsored by the State Departments of Education and Civil Defense as the result of the March 22 earthquake and the tidal wave scare earlier in the month."

End quote and now for comment

The above news story from a San Francisco paper was mailed to me by Nan Wallace (Mrs. Lawrence Wallace). Nan was probably the first person in this county to realize some years ago that we must plan and act for civil defense.

Nan is not a dreamer or a talker. She is a woman of action. She enrolled and completed the civil defense courses given by the federal government at St. Mary's College. She has campaigned for sound county civil defense and because of this became the target of attack by do-nothing county officials. She has worked closely with parents and school groups and was instrumental in obtaining the first bell and light warning system for a school. She was active in forming the Clayton Valley civil defense sub-council — probably the most active unit of its kind in the county. This was five or six years ago. Many local communities still do not have civil defense organizations.

And Nan Wallace has needled and educated this writer to make me more aware of the civil defense problem. For that alone, I am grateful to her. (Incidentally, Mrs. Wallace was one of the three original people responsible for the formation of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.)

Back to the issue at stake

Well. let's get back to the theme for this column. For years, Nan Wallace has stressed the urgent need for revising building plans for schools.

Architecture of school buildings must be changed because of the threat of A or H bombs, she declares. Most classrooms now have one complete wall of glass, usually a wall of windows. What happens to the children in that classroom if there is a disaster that blows in all that glass?

I argued with Nan because I am completely sold on modern, functional design — and this means lots of glass. But she does not oppose modern architecture for schools. She does, however, insist that some of the glass be eliminated so there would be an area in each classroom where glass would not fall on the students.

How to catch flying glass

Nan explained that the very young can duck and hide under their school tables but not the older kids. She and the other parents of Loma Vista School in Mt. Diablo School District raised hundreds of dollars by benefit events to install venetian blinds in the classrooms. These blinds would catch flying glass.

Nan was interested when she read Dr. Lindsay's statement at being appalled by the amount of glass to which we expose our children in school. She further states that NOW is the time for districts to plan their schools so the children will be better protected. Two school bond issues are on the ballot in this area and others will be forthcoming. Taxpayers pay enough for new schools without later having to themselves finance expensive installations of venetian blinds or other protection, she declares.

To all this, I agree. School districts should investigate this thinking right now and act immediately. Parents — you and me — should become interested in this problem. And Dr. Lindsay should consult with other state officials who approve most of the plans for new schools. Wouldnt' a state directive solve the problem immediately?

What do you think?

Speaks to Therapists

Dr. Leon Lewis, director of Polio, Respiratory and Rehibilitation Center at Fairmont Hospital in Oakland, was guest speaker yesterday at the quarterly meeting of the medical staff of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

The meeting was held at the Center, 100 Golf Club Road, Pleasant Hill.

Physicians of east Contra Costa County heard Dr. Lewis' talk about "Practical Application of Rehabilitation Principles in Medical Practice."

A monthly meeting of the executive committee of the medical staff was held at the Center, Monday. Dr. Harold S. Robinson, chairman, presided.

Jane Nodder Wed in Gown Preserved from 1881 Rites

Married Saturday in the same gown worn by her great-grandmother and grandmother at their weddings was Mrs. James H. Klick, the former Jane Carol Nodder.

The Walnut Creek couple traveled "north" for their honeymoon and will reside in Berkeley on their return.

The ceremony was conducted in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church by the Rev. James Upshaw.

A RECEPTION was held at the Alamo Women's Club. Tall candelabra with ivory candles, flowers and ribbon lent atmosphere.

The bride carried down the aisle a bouquet of white roses stephanotis and orchids. She wore an heirloom gown of deep ivory satin trimmed with front panel, sleeves and yoke of imported illusion lace.

Pleated satin ruffling encircled the train and curves up the front to the waist line.

The veil was full length ivory illusion attached to a satin crown of simple ring design wound with pearls.

HER GOWN was made in London England in 1881 for Jane's great-grandmother, and was worn by her grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Nodder of Oakland at her wedding in 1906.

The W. D. Nodders celebrated their Golden anniversary last September 8.

Jane's maid of honor was Miss Kathleen Florness of Oakland. Bridesmaids were Miss Lynn Cathcart of Walnut Creek, Miss Margo Neves of Oakland, both cousins of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Weaver of San Anselmo and Mrs. Delaine Luft of Watsonville.

Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Florness were sorority sisters of the bride at the University of California, Berkeley.

Best man was DeFores James Corlett of Berkeley. Ushers were Russell Nodder, Jane's brother; Bryan Sanford of San Anselmo, James' cousin, Stephen Lawrence of Walnut Creek and Edward Keefe of Los Angeles.

THE CHURCH WAS lighted entirely by candles. Candelabra lined the side aisles and were placed behind the communion table. Single candles were mounted in ribbon bows and calla lillies in the pew ends.

Large arrangements of glodiolo, stock and lillies were placed at the front on both sides.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ida Klick and the late Martin Klick. He has a brother, Lt. Clyde Klock of the U. S. Air Force in Germany.

He graduated from Acalanes High School, attended East Contra Costa Junior College and is now a student at Oakland Junior College.

He plans to enter the school of engineering at the University of California. He has served two years in the Army.

Jane Attended Oakland and Acalanes High Schools, and is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley. She was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Spring Brings Festive Party Plans to Mind

Over 600 Plan to Be At Local Spring Fling

Over one hundred Cal alumni couples have already signified their intent to bring two other couples with them to the Spring Fling, a dance for the benefit of the California Alumni Scholarship Fund.

The dance will be held Friday evening, April 26 at the Walnut Creek Holy Ghost Association Hall on Boulevard Way. Bill Peterson and his Golden Bear-cats will again provide the music

Don Reichert, of Lafayette, chairman of the Diablo area scholarship committee, announced that invitations to the affair were mailed to all local alumni on the mailing list.

He stressed that all Cal grads and their friends are welcome even if an invitation did not reach them since only one-third of the alumni living in the area are on the mailing list.

Last year over 600 'Blues' attended and had a wonderful evening of dancing and renewing old acquaintances. They helped make it possible to award six monetary scholarships to worthy students from this area entering the University of California.

This year the need for funds is even greater as the applications from nearly fifty students have been forwarded to the committee for consideration.

Reichert said the committee hopes to be able to make as many as eight awards this year, but the total number will depend upon the success of the dance.

Alumni planning to attend can obtain tickets from the following list of sponsoring couples who are planning to attend.

From the Orinda area, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Arighi, Art Lundblad, John Serr, Bill Wilkinson, Robert Davis, Greg Engelhard, Norm Cunningham, Gene Reid, Otto Schrader, Stan Massie, Jack Everett, Tevis Thompson, Bradley Garretson, Bruno Franceschi, Ed Winthers, Marvin Bonds, Francis Allen Jr., F. Up from Danville the following will come: the Jack Schafers, Thaddeus Cline, Richard Hamilton, Allen Faber, Faber Funk, Edgar Manske, Harley Sorenson, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Priewe, Albert Rubey and the William Hale Jr's.

The contingent from Walnut Creek will include Burt Marliave, Milton Rowley, Robert Odell, Lee Umphred, James Hechtman, Eugene Chiado, Edward Leach, Robert Pope, Floyd Taylor, Harold Ashton, and Cliff Dahlgrens. ANNUAL EASTER PARTY at Rheem Center will be staged by Clark's tomorrow. Fun galore is in store for youngsters. The Easter Egg Hunt at 1:30 p.m. will be the climax of a busy round of festivities. Ready for the varied events are, left to right, Mrs. Bettie Clark, Jackie Clark, Mickie Clark and Billie Clark. —Sun photo by Mattson

Galindos See 'Old' Home

Mrs. Catherine Galindo, her daughter Miss Ruth Galindo, and another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Fink, spent Sunday driving through Franklin Canyon to visit the famous home of General Vallejo, and other historical spots along the way.

They reported that the countryside was lovely. The trip proved very interesting and added to their knowledge of California history and the area.

Mrs. Galindo and her family spent a great deal of time visiting missions, museums and historical homes and sites in the area.

They found their Sunday excursion also restful. They had just spent a hectic week during which the phone had rung constantly with residents asking permission to see their home.

All Sunday long while they were visiting at General Vallejo's home a steady stream of sight-seers passed their century old house on Amador Street in Concord. The sight-seers were interested in viewing Concord's own historical home.

Party and Sale Slated by Guild

The Ladies Guild of Queen of All Saints Church held its regular monthly meeting April 10 in the School Hall.

A rummage sale is scheduled for the later part of May. Time and place to be announced later.

Members will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 Mass April 26, Feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel, who is their patroness.

Jennie Wadinski, Mamie Duarte and Caroline Roberts were appointed to the nominating committee for new officers.

Father Louis Homtz, spiritual director, addressed the meeting.

On the morning following the meeting the members met at the home of Isabel DeRosa to prepare the palm and olive branches for Palm Sunday.

An all musical program will be featured when members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Alameda Contra Costa Medical Association, Alameda County Unit, meet for luncheon on Friday, April 26, at the Officer's Club, U.S. Naval Air Station, Alameda. Mrs. T. Richard Hofmann, president, will preside.

Pirates Edge Knights, 4-2

Las Lomas played host to the Pittsburg Pirate baseball team April 11 and wound up on the short end of a 4-2 count.

It was a tight battle all the way.

Pittsburg took a 1-0 first inning lead and made it 2-0 in the top of the third, only to have the Knights score one of their own in the bottom of the third.

THE KNIGHTS knotted the count at 2-all when they scored in the bottom of the fifth.

Pittsburg decided the issue in the sixth when the Pirates put together a pair of walks, a sacrifice, an error and a timely single by Shortstop Paul Snyder, to score two runs.

Neither club could cross home plate the rest of the way, and it was a Pirate win, 4-2.

EXTRA BASE HITS went to the Knights when Pitcher Joe Sibley and First Baseman Eric Nankwell connected for triples. Centerfielder Doug Potter had two for three at bat, to pace the game's hitters.

Sibley hurled the first six innings for the Knights, giving up but two hits. Don Hopkins hurled the final seventh. Dodge was on the receiving end for the full game.

Battery for Pittsburg was Fields and Barraco.

Pittsburg committed five boots to three for Las Lomas.

Preps' County Tract Meet To Be Held at Las Lomas

BY ERWIN MATTSON

THE COUNTY TRACT MEET will make history in more ways than one this year.

It's slated for Las Lomas, which is a first in the annals of prep track.

It looks to be Pittsburg in the Bees, while in varsity division it promises to be closer than the paper on the wall, with Dialo and Acalanes taking the spotlight.

Pittsburg could sneak in but it would probably be through the the back door, as the Pirates appear to lack depth and all-around strength.

I SEE WHERE VALDEZ of Antioch was credited with a 9.9 hundred the first time out.

He hasn't come close to that time since.

Chances are he ran a short course or the clocks needed oiling.

PREP BASEBALL has been close all the way.

One thing certain—there are probably more top-flight sophomore pitchers than there ever have been in the local circuit.

Lichti of Diablo, Hopkins of Las Lomas and Kritscher of Acalanes are all top-notch second year men, who have all thrown top games, with hits few and far between.

All three should hook up in some good duels this season and next, with Hopkins and Kritscher facing each other in the new league in their senior years.

Steve Bordi, Diablo's roving centerfielder, has drawn the spotlight more than once this season with his sensational fielding and timely hitting.

He is going to be tough to keep off the All-County team if he maintains his present pace.

It's an even wager that no team finishes the league play with less than two losses.

Pleasant Hill has the only unblemished record to date, but has had a pair of close ones.

ACALANES IS CONSIDERED to be the team to beat in swimming in the varsity section, while Las Lomas rates in the Bees.

As in track, there will be lots of strategic shifting of personnel at the time of the county meet.

It is difficult to realize that about four weeks of prep sports remain, and it will then be all over for the 1956-57 school year.

The season was shortened considerably due to the rains, which were consistent and persistent in the early spring season, when "wet grounds" was the word of the day.

Devils Rap Spartans With 11-2

The Diablo Red Devils baseball club continued its winning ways April 11 when it rapped the Pacifica Spartans 11-2.

Diablo sent its senior ace right-hander, Rod Atnip, to the hill, and he responded by throwing a three-hitter and striking out 14 in the process.

ATNIP ALSO proved adept at bat, as he accounted for three runs with three single.

The game was played at Diablo.

Leftfielder Jim Ligget drove in two runs on two hits.

THERE WERE only two extra base hits in the game — one a triple by Pacifica's Cooper Miller, and the other a double by Diablo's catcher, Dave Stafford.

Diablo led 7-2 at the end of three innings of play and made it 11-2 when the collected four more runs in the fifth.

DIABLO OUTHIT the visitors 9-3, while Pacifica had the most errors, 4-3.

Atnip and Anderson formed the battery for Diablo, as did Kent and Anderson for Pacifica.

The win kept Diablo in a three-way tie for first with Pittsburg and Pleasant Hill.

Ram Trackmen Nab Double Win Over Las Lomas

The Pleasant Hill Rams gave the home fans something to yell about on April 10 when they posted a dual win over the Las Lomas track team.

The final in the varsity count gave the Rams a 61-52 margin, while in the Bees the Rams coasted to a 76½-36½ victory.

HIGHLIGHT of the meet was the county's best broad jump of the year by Pleasant Hill's Bob Ritchie, who sailed 22 feet, 2 inches. The mark is the fourth best this season in Northern California.

Salazar of the Rams was the meet's only double winner, taking the 100 in 10.6 and skimming the 180-yard low hurdles in 20.9.

OTHER FIRST PLACE winners were as follows:

220 — Ostrom (L), 24.4; 440 — Ipson (P), 54.9; 880 — Goulart (L), 2:08.4; mile — Rasmussen (L), 5:06; 120 high hurdles — Pratt (P), 16.9; high jump — March (P), 5 feet, 8 inches; pole vault — Crane (P), 11 feet, 6 inches; shot put — Rice (P), 46 feet, 10½ inches; discus — Johnson (L), 119 feet, 4 inches.

The relay went to Las Lomas, which toured the 880-yard distance in 1:34.7.

Harrison Hurls No Hit Opener

Fifteen-year-old Jim Harrison led the Mt. Diablo Y's Men's Club Babe Ruth League team to a near perfect start last Saturday as he registered a no-hit 9-1 victory over the Walnut Creek Optimists on the Pleasant Hill field.

Two Diablo errors rescued the Optimists from a shutout in the season opener. Lefthander Harrison struck out six Optimists while walking only two.

Offensive leaders for the Pleasant Hill team were Don Damera who tripled in the fifth inning with the bases loaded and Albert Oxley who pounded out two for three with two runs-batted-in.

Don Thinclads Defeat Diablo

The Acalanes varsity thinclads came through with some best-of-the-season mark to outscore the Diablo track team last Friday, 63-55.

The meet, held at Acalanes, found Don mentor Charles Eaton uncovering a surprise package when he brought up a sophomore, Leo MacFarlane, from the Bees to run the mile in 4.35 to set a new meet and stadium record.

Up to last Friday MacFarlane had competed for the Bees in the 1320 (¾-mile) event, where he held the school record.

OTHER MARKS went by the boards when the Dons' Carl Lincoln posted a win in the high jump by clearing the bar at 6 feet, one inch, and when the Dons' Dick Hayman, another sophomore, roared to a 1320 win in the Bees with a record-breaking 3:28.3.

That one broke the mark formerly held by MacFarlane.

Smith of Diablo was a double winner, taking the 100 in 10.4 and the 220 in 22.7, as well as running a leg on the winning relay team.

OTHER TWO-TIME winners were Ernie Fox, who took first for the Dons in the 120-yard high hurdles (15.6) and the 180-yard lows (21.1), and John Cadwell, who took the shot for Acalanes with a 53-foot heave and the discus with a 135 foot, 9 inch toss.

Diablo proved to be the class in the Bee meet, which they won with ease, 85-28.

Variety Program Set for College

The Third Annual Variety Show and Dance sponsored by the St. Mary's College campus radio station KHSM will be staged Friday, April 26,, from 8 to 12 midnight in the college gymnasium.

Hosted by a special master of ceremonies, the show will include professional performers, act featuring coeds from Dominican, Belmont and Holy Names Colleges and St. Mary's talent. Music for the dance will be provided by the Al Tarabini Trio.

KHSM manager, Robert Grazzini of San Leandro, has named Harry Arbios of Stockton director of the Show. Arbios will be assisted by Walnut Creek's Frank Perry and George Firpo of Stockton.

Baseball Race One of Closest For Prep Teams

The Contra Costa Section of the Diablo Valley Athletic Baseball League is proving to be one of the best in recent years.

Games have been close, for the most part, and the only club to date that hasn't won one is the Pacifica Spartans. They do have a nine-inning tie with Las Lomas.

Pitching, for the most part, has been of high caliber, and the strikeouts have outdistanced the hits.

The Pleasant Hill Rams, Pittsburg and the Mt. Diablo Devils are currently tied for the top spot, with four wins and one loss and with the schedule less than half completed. The only thing certain is that no club is going undefeated!

Standings to date are as follows:

	W	L	T
Pleasant Hill	4	1	0
Mt. Diablo	4	1	0
Pittsburg	4	1	0
Antioch	3	2	0
Las Lomas	1	4	1
Acalanes	1	4	0
Pacifica	0	4	1

Panther JVs Beat Matadors

In a league junior varsity game played at Antioch April 11 the Antioch Panthers scored an 8-5 win over the Miramonte nine.

The Panthers held a 7-0 advantage at the end of the third inning and made it 8-0 when they scored their final run in the fifth.

Miramonte came back swinging, to tally a lone run in the top of the sixth and a big four in the seventh, to wind it all up 8-5.

Antioch outhit the visitors 10-5 but committed nary an error. Miramonte had four errors.

Highlight in the Miramonte performance was the stick work of frosh Catcher Bryan Collins, who had 2-3 (singles) and in addition scored two runs.

Bruce Hancock, who relieved starter Frank Felman and went the final three innings, struck out three and gave up but one hit.

Acalanes H.S. District To Mark 17th Anniversary

Public Schools Week, April 29 to May 3, will mark the observance of the 17th anniversary of the Acalanes High School District.

Originally organized back in 1939, the Acalanes District was hewn from the Mount Diablo High School District to serve the communities of Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda. Canyon and Moraga.

In the first year of operation in 1940, fewer than 400 pupils enrolled at Acalanes High, the first district school plant.

At the time the new district was organized many people felt that the area didn't warrant a high school and that most probably the community would never be large enough to support a complete secondary educational program.

TODAY Acalanes High School District enrollment has grown from 400 to 3150 students who attend three schools: Acalanes, in Lafayette; Las Lomas, in Walnut Creek, and Miramonte, in Orinda.

The first two schools have complete four-year secondary programs. In line with the district policy of "build as you grow," Miramonte will run a ninth to 11th grade program next year and a four-year school in the fall of 1958.

A fourth high school in Tice Valley is on the planning boards.

According to predictions by planning experts, the initial 400 enrollment at Acalanes will eventually hit 9600 pupils some time.

The original high school plant at Acalanes in 1940 was valued at $300,000. Today, physical properties of the district total $4,700,000, and building consultants estimate that another $13 million will be spent before the district has reached its ultimate pupil enrollment.

FIFTEEN FACULTY members made up the district staff in 1940. Today 135 credentialed educators work for the district, with 156 when school opens in the fall. The number of instructors is expected to continue to rise in the future as enrollment growth requires.

School trustees assert: "Acalanes High School District instructors are among the best in the State. Competence of the staff is continually reflected in the caliber of students being graduated into colleges and industry."

School board members point out that, in addition to other qualifications, "the average teacher with the district has had five and one-half years of college in preparation for his position."

The district curriculum offers many courses. Most of these courses are basic studies in math, science, English, social studies and foreign language.

BASIC STUDIES are braced with classe in physical education, home economics, shop instruction, commercial courses, music and other areas of specialized study designed to bolster basic learning and meet the individual vocational and academic needs of the students.

The Acalanes High School District, aside from its basic function of educating the children of the community, also provides numerous community services.

Last year more than 175 community organizations used high school facilities for various functions, at no cost to the district and a cost basis charge for users.

More than 3500 registrants attended Acalanes District Adult Center courses during 1956-57, with the cost of the adult program borne by adult students themselves and state assistance.

PARENTS and the public are invited to view the Acalanes District educational program in their high school during Public Schools Week.

Programs are planned in conjunction with the regular monthly parent club meetings: April 25, 7:30 p.m., at Las Lomas; April 29, 8 p.m., at both Acalanes and Miramonte High Schools.

Persons who wish to do so are also invited to visit the schools during class sessions April 29 through May 3.

Dahlias Give Colorful Touch To Many Months

Long-blooming flowers are becoming increasingly popular here in California because the climate permits outdoor gardening for such a long period of the year.

Gardeners looking for colorful flowers to provide many months of garden interest should investigate the dahlia.

Prepare the dahlia bed by working organic matter, fertilizer and phosphate material into the bottom of the planting hole.

OVER THIS RESERVOIR of "food" lay a cushion of chemical-free soil. Place a stake in the hole and the Dahlia root or tuber next to it, covering it with several inches of soil.

If you wish you can plant two, three or four Dahlia tubers in the hole. As they grow they will entwine and support each other, eliminating the need for an unsightly stake.

Fertilize the plants if necessary when they're well established. Water at the time of planting and not again until the plants are up — in three to five weeks.

AFTER LEAVES are in full production and buds are set, Dahlias require lots of water.

Extra-large flowers can be produced by removing all but the terminal buds on the side stalks.

Local Swimmers Set to Perform For St. Mary's

Captain of the Saint Mary's swim team this year is Richard Clark of Lafayette. This is the first swim team that Saint Mary's has had in the last seven years.

Clark has done much of the organizational work of the team, including scheduling practices and lining up meets for them.

Another Lafayette resident, Louis Mancini, is also on the team.

Clark swims the 210 yard individual medley and the 180 yard free style, while Mancini concentrates on the backstroke. Both swim the medley relay.

Clark is a sophomore Liberal Arts student who plans to major in history. Mancini is a freshman prelegal student.

Before coming to Saint Mary's, Dick attended Acalanes High School in Lafayette. Louis graduated from Mount Diablo High School in Concord.

Clark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood L. Clark of 1075 Laurel Drive, Lafayette.

Mancini is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Mancini of 3459 Via Los Colorados, Lafayette.

True Dwarf Citrus Trees Add Fragrance to Garden

By THE GARDENER

TRUE DWARF CITRUS trees are now available which bear superb fruit and foliage, fill the garden with the fragrance of their flowers and may be raised virtually anywhere with minimum care.

You may have one, regardless of the size or scope of your garden area.

True dwarf citrus were pioneered and developed by Floyd C. Dillon and his son Don Dillon, of Mission San Jose.

THEY NOW OFFER 30 true dwarf varieties, ranging from oranges and lemons to tangelos and kumquats, created by grafting choice "mother trees" onto selected dwarfing root stocks.

The use of this special root stock is the key factor, and requires painstaking selection for each variety.

The remarkable dwarfs thus produced possess fruiting and appearance as desirable as the "mother tree" itself, and the "mother trees" were chosen from the most perfect of their strains.

WITH TODAY'S "garden living," trees and shrubs in boxes can become articles of furniture, to be lived with and moved around according to taste.

Dwarf citrus trees fit this idea perfectly, as they thrive in containers. True dwarf citrus trees occupy less than one-fourth the space of orchard trees, but they bear up to 70 per cent as much fruit. They may be planted the year around in any sunny, wind-free location.

At maturity, in about 15 years, they are some 8 feet high and wide. (Standard citrus trees reach about 20 feet in height and width at the same stage.)

YOU MAY CHOOSE from 30 varieties of oranges, lemons, limes, grapefruit, tangerines, mandarins and kumquats — all available upon inquiry at your local nurseryman's.

Grown in the can, they have all roots intact, and may be readily transplanted. Given light, heat, moisture, drainage and nutrient, they require but minimum care.

These remarkable trees are adaptable to varied soils, but those rich in humus are best.

DRAINAGE is important: one way to provide for it is with a raised bed, with the tree entirely above grade.

A liberal sized basin is desirable for irrigation around the tree. Happily enough, watering is relatively infrequent. The basic idea is to water thoroughly, letting it soak down deep.

Once the tree is established, water only when the tree needs if—the leaves will be in a wilting condition. During the dry season established trees need water once every month or six weeks.

NEW INSECTICIDES make pest control easy for modern gardeners, and your local nurseryman can aid your selection.

Here are some planting instructions to follow. If you plant in a container, use one-half virgin soil, one-fourth sand and one-fourth peat moss. Use no manure. Fertilize only after your dwarf citrus has become established — about six months after planting.

Once a month, use a balanced commercial fertilizer containing 6 per cent nitrogen; apply at the time of irrigation one-half cup the first year; three-fourths cup the second year; one cup the third year; increasing gradually in this proportion as the tree grows.

MULCH with peat moss, leaf mold, manures, shavings, sawdust, etc., to conserve moisture, moderate heat and to retard soil crusting and keep down weeds.

Among the most popular varieties of true dwarf citrus are Robertson Navel, Washington Navel and Valencia oranges; Eureka and Meyer lemons; Marsh Seedless grapefruit; Kinnow mandarins; Mexican and Rangpur limes, and Negami kumquats.

Enjoy the pleasure of raising choice fruits in your garden now, with true dwarf citrus trees. Look for the graft, which indicates a true dwarf variety that will furnish superb fruit and foliage.
